

CORN YIELD

Average yield of corn on U.S. land is 33 bushels to an acre, but yields of 140 bushels to the acre are not uncommon and there are some reports of yields of 225 bushels per acre.

CANNING SECRET

Canning of food by the hermetic sealing process was invented in France late in the 18th century, primarily as a move to preserve the food needed to feed Napoleon's armies.

Obituaries

Lester J. Callaway

Funeral services for Lester Joseph Callaway, 73, father of Doris Mathlin, 115. Cerise Ave., were held at the Halverson-Levell Mortuary Chapel yesterday afternoon with Rev. Paul Wenske, pastor of the First Lutheran Church, officiating.

Mrs. Callaway, a native of Wisconsin, had lived here for 17 years. He died Monday in Redondo Beach.

He is survived by two sons, Cecil of Inglewood and Raymond of Dixon, Calif.; two daughters, Mrs. Mathlin and Mrs. Thelma Belvill of Denver; six grandchildren, and two brothers, Thomas of Ielston, Calif., and Arch of Tulsa, Okla. Interment was in Roosevelt Memorial Park.

Samuel A. Vasarhely

Rosary will be recited tonight at 8 o'clock at Matelli's & Peck Chapel in Long Beach for Samuel Andrew Vasarhely, 45, a welder, who died Monday in a Gardena hospital.

A native of Cleveland, O., he had lived in Long Beach for three years and was employed by a local supply firm.

Requiem mass will be offered tomorrow at 9 a.m. at St. Matthew's Church in Long Beach. Burial will follow at All Souls' Cemetery.

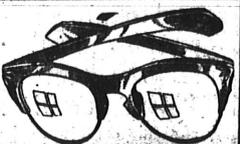

He is survived by two sisters, both of Long Beach, and two brothers, who both live in Cleveland.

"Worry doesn't empty the day of its trouble, but only of its strength."

Group Notes Founders' Day

Rho Xi chapter of Beta Sigma Phi held its first annual Founders' Day celebration recently with a banquet at a restaurant in Inglewood.

President Mrs. Ray Jennings gave an opening speech on the founder, Walter W. Ross.

Vice-President Mrs. Donald Dawson gave a short resume of the chapter's achievement during its brief six months in existence. Following this she presented Mrs. Jennings with the traditional outgoing president's gift.

Mrs. James McEwen read a message from the founder, Walter W. Ross. Mrs. Dave Dawson presented Mrs. Jennings with the chapter's scrapbook.

The installation of new officers followed the program. Mrs. Donald Dawson succeeded Mrs. Ray Jennings as president. Other newly elected officers were Mmes. Paul Hebert, vice-president; Lloyd Lawrence, recording secretary; Palmer Hakala, corresponding secretary, and Bill Jackson, who will serve her second term as treasurer.

Other members and guests were Messrs. and Mmes. Walter Brown; Clarence Dawson, James Jordan, John Segrelo, John Kestle, Donald Moore, Lester Mayfield, Mildred Stevens and escort.

The evening was concluded with cocktails and dancing.

INSPECTION TOUR... Supervisor Kenneth Hahn pauses in his inspection of the new $21,000 community recreation building now being constructed at El Nido Park to talk to Fred Schwarm, plumber. Still to be added to the park in the first improvements there since 1950 is playground equipment for children.

Rock Island Picnic

The Rock Island, Ill., spring picnic will be held Sunday, May 13, at Centinela Park, Inglewood.

North Torrance Roundup Slated

Kindergarten registration for pupils entering classes at North Torrance Elementary School has been scheduled for May 22 and 23. Principal Margaret Denmark announced yesterday.

Parents wishing to register their children for next September's kindergarten classes may register at the school on either of the two days without appointment. Registrations will be open between 9 a.m. and 4 p.m.

Registration for the new Arlington School which will be open in September may be made also at North Torrance Elementary. Parents in doubt about the school their children will attend may find out by calling the school or by calling the district office in Torrance.
